

Employment Opportunity

Title Rubber Tire Backhoe

Department Operations

Reports to Operations Manager

Job Summary

Meech Creek Contracting is family owned and operates within Calgary and surrounding area. Our team is what makes us stand out and we are looking to expand. Meech Creek Contracting is looking for an experienced utility Rubber Tire Backhoe Operator to join our team. This position is available as full-time employment with a competitive wage and benefits.

Essential Job Functions

- Work independently
- Excavate and backfill utility trenching
- Backfills and site grading
- Efficient use and installation of equipment attachments (breaker, tamper etc.)
- Read and understand site plans, grade slips and locates
- Effective communicate in English both verbally and written
- Conduct equipment and site inspections
- Maintain machine in a clean and operable condition

Minimum Requirements

- 2 -3 years (1000+ hours) operating experience (backhoe experience mandatory)
- Utilities experience required, with residential and commercial construction experience preferred
- Valid certification in Ground Disturbance Level II and First Aid
- Clean driver's abstract
- Class 1 Drivers License an asset
- Equipment Operator Competency Certificate an asset
- Own Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) including CSA steel toed boots and high visibility vest
- Applicants will require own transportation.

Please submit resumes to hr@meechcreek.ca